It is very important that each of us continue to send in our offerings as normal, or maybe even a bit extra. We do not have a large margin or reserves here at Apostles, so everyone doing their part to support the ministry here is very important at this time. If you don't use the online giving, please mail your offering to the church or drop it off in person. To give online, go to givelify.com click on the donate now button and enter Apostles Lutheran Church. It's easy, quick and safe.

Todays Worship Service 8:00am

Second Sunday after Epiphany

Hymn of Invocation: “Take My Life and Let It Be” 783 vs. 1-3

Divine Service Setting Four pg 203

(please use this paper as a book mark to keep track of where we are as we move through the hymnal)

Old Testament Reading: 1 Samuel 3:1–10 (11–20) (The Lord calls Samuel.)

Epistle Reading: 1 Corinthians 6:12–20 (To whom does your body belong?)

Gospel Reading: John 1:43–51 (Jesus calls Philip and Nathanael.)

Hymn of the Day: “I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light” 411

Sermon: “To Whom Does Your Body Belong” 1 Corinthians 6:12-20

“All things are lawful for me,” but not all things are helpful. “All things are lawful for me,” but I will not be enslaved by anything. “Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food”—and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! Or do you not know that he who is joined to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For, as it is written, “The two will become one flesh.” But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

Closing Hymn: “Take My Life and Let It Be” 783 vs. 4-5
