As We Gather

This day in the life of the Church is focused on the divinely ordained work of the angels and archangels. Although there are countless angels at work in the service of God, few are known to us by name. The archangel Michael is one of two who are specifically named in both the Old and the New Testaments. Michael's name means "who is like God." Michael is given the greatest of assignments in working on behalf of God's people and commanding the legion of heavenly beings.

Today's Scripture Readings

Old Testament Reading: Daniel 10:10–14; 12:1–3 (The Book of Life contains the names of the faithful whom God will deliver.)

Epistle Reading: Revelation 12:7–12 (The great war in heaven is won by Michael and his angel army.)

Holy Gospel: Matthew 18:1–11 ("Their angels always see the face of My Father.")

Sermon : "They (Our) Angels" Matthew 18:10-11

At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" And calling to him a child, he put him in the midst of them and said, "Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

"Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

"Woe to the world for temptations to sin! For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the one by whom the temptation comes! And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into the eternal fire. And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into the hell of fire.

"See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven. For the Son of Man came to save the lost."
